The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai

One of the original grand hotels of the world, The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai, has grown to become an integral part of the city's history and, indeed, its heart. Determined to give Bombay a landmark that would place it amongst the world's greatest cities, Jamsetji N. Tata built this icon in 1903. At the time, it was probably the only place in the world where a British Viceroy could rub shoulders with an Indian Maharajah. Predating the Gateway of India by almost two decades, the Taj welcomed the world to the city's shores. As decades passed and its reputation spread, the guests grew even more varied. It has been home to heads of state and celebrities, kings & queens and hollywood royalty, maharajahs and rockstars.
